DEALER PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

Parties: DETENCIONDEFENSACOM, INC., doing business as DetencionDefensa.com and Don't Lose Your Car ("Company"), and ____, a licensed Florida motor vehicle dealer, license no. ____ ("Dealer").

1. Referrals. The Company may refer vehicles whose owners have signed a Vehicle Rescue Agreement. A referral includes the vehicle information, the owner's signed authorizations, and the Company's viability calculation. No minimum number of referrals is guaranteed.

2. Response times. Within 4 business hours of a referral, the Dealer accepts or declines it. After accepting, the Dealer retrieves the vehicle within 48 hours, or sooner if the tow yard is about to sell it, unless a law enforcement hold prevents retrieval.

3. Guaranteed Minimum Price. The Dealer's offer will be at least the benchmark wholesale value under Schedule A of the owner's Vehicle Rescue Agreement, adjusted only for documented condition items. The Dealer sends photos, the condition report, the benchmark printout, and the settlement statement to the owner's Designated Contact within 24 hours of retrieval.

4. Owner's right to refuse. If the owner rejects the offer, the Dealer releases the vehicle to the person the owner names once the towing and storage charges the Dealer advanced are repaid. The Dealer charges no storage of its own for the first 10 days after rejection and no more than USD ____ per day after that.

5. Advanced charges. The Dealer pays towing, storage, and lien payoff amounts up front and recovers them only as shown on the settlement statement, with receipts attached.

6. Referral fee. The Dealer pays the Company USD 250 for each referred vehicle the Dealer accepts, within 10 days after the end of each month, with a monthly report by VIN. No fee is owed on a referral the Dealer declines or that does not close because of the viability test or the owner's rejection. The fee may not be deducted from, or passed on to, the owner in any form.

7. Payment to owner. The Dealer pays the net proceeds directly to the payee in the owner's Schedule B within 3 business days of title transfer. The Dealer never pays proceeds to the Company.

8. Title work. The Dealer handles title transfer, odometer disclosure, and plate removal in compliance with Florida law, and gives the Company and the Designated Contact copies of the completed title documents.

9. Fair dealing. The Dealer will not: ask about, record, or disclose any owner's immigration status; contact any government agency about an owner except as required for title or vehicle release; offer an owner or family member any side deal, loan, or trade outside this program; resell or share owner personal information; or use the names "DetencionDefensa", "Don't Lose Your Car", or "No Pierdas Tu Carro" in advertising without the Company's written approval.

10. Licensing, insurance, compliance. The Dealer keeps its Florida dealer license, surety bond, and garage liability insurance of at least USD 1,000,000 per occurrence naming the Company as additional insured; complies with all Florida motor vehicle, towing, consumer protection, and federal odometer laws; and notifies the Company within 2 business days of any license action.

11. Audit. The Company may audit any referred transaction, including benchmark printouts and resale records, on 5 business days' notice. If an audit shows the owner was paid less than the Guaranteed Minimum Price, the Dealer pays the shortfall to the owner within 10 days, plus 10%.

12. Indemnity. The Dealer indemnifies the Company and the owner against claims arising from the Dealer's handling, storage, transport, title work, or resale of a referred vehicle.

13. Independent parties; no exclusivity. The Dealer and the Company are independent contractors; neither is the other's agent. The Company may refer vehicles to other dealers.

14. Term and termination. One year, renewing automatically unless either party gives 30 days' written notice. The Company may terminate immediately for breach of Sections 3, 7, 9, or 10. Obligations to owners on vehicles already accepted survive termination.

15. Confidentiality and data. Owner information is confidential, used only for the referred transaction, kept no longer than required by law, and deleted or returned on request when the transaction is complete.

16. Governing law. Florida law; venue Miami-Dade County, Florida.

Signature blocks for Dealer and Company (By / Title / Date).
